Pathways of climate and conflict-related food security risks in Tigray region Ethiopia

- Climate impacts
  - Drought and high temperatures reduce crop and livestock productivity
  - Violence and instability reduce capacity to respond to increase in climate change induced locust swarms
  - Reduced productivity decreases agricultural employment, worsening poverty and inequality
  - Poverty and inequality increase likelihood of conflict, political divides and intercommunal tension, constraining humanitarian assistance

Food emergency in Tigray region Ethiopia

©adelphi